A HISTORIC CELEBRATION OF OUR BELOVED MOTOR CITY CULINARY HERITAGE

NOVI - On Monday, December 9th, 2024 the Novi Emagine Theatre will be transformed into a culinary celebration for the Detroit's chefs community for the premiere of Detroit: The City of Chefs, a film by director/producer Keith Famie and his team from Visionalist Entertainment Productions.

VIP Reception

There will be a private community leader reception from 5:30pm to 7:30pm. Culinary creations by Schoolcraft College and Oakland Community College students will be presented.

General admission ticket holders will be able to enter the complex at 6:30pm.

We are expecting roughly 1,200 guests.

Chef Celebrities

As part of the evening's festivities, we will be featuring several local and national chef cookbook authors in a designated area.

Tasting Area

There will be an interactive tasting area where several of the most respected food products can be sampled and learned about.

Pre-show

A pre-show music montage of production photos along with supporter logos will be playing on screens in the lobby as well as all the theaters that evening.

This historic celebration will benefit these local organizations:

Rising Stars Academy, Gilda's Club of Metro Detroit, The Rainbow Connection, and New Day Foundation.

Thank you to our current executive producers & supporters:

John & Carole Kulhavi - Tony & Mary Schimizzi - Tom & Sue Rau

Roger & Mary Kreager - Jennifer Adderley
